Mr. William R. Graham
Acting Chairman
General Advisory Committee on Arms Control and Disarmament
Washington, D. C. 20451

Dear Mr. Graham:

I congratulate you and the Committee on your nomination to the General Advisory Committee. This Committee has been a body of influence and importance in the past, and I know Gene Rostow wants it to play a similar role in the evolution of President Reagan's arms control policy.

It will give me great pleasure to meet with you and the Committee on Friday morning, July ninth. In view of the importance of the subjects we will be discussing, I shall be bringing some of my substantive experts with me.

Thank you also for your invitation to luncheon with the Committee on July eighth. I hope you will understand if I accept provisionally, depending on whether my schedule will permit me to join you.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
